

Peace in the Pandemic ...

These last few months have been a real wake up call for all of us. We have been overwhelmed by the economic and employment impact of COVID 19 and faced the complicated emotional response over racial reconciliation. Below you'll find another great update from Dr. Joe Dang (IronMen) from the front lines of the COVID-19 battle. Even the response to COVID – masks, social distancing, political conspiracy theories – is causing divisiveness. As disciples of Jesus Christ, how are we to respond to all of this? The first way I know is through prayer. I hope you'll join me in the following cry out...

God, grant us the heart to weep with those who weep. Give us empathy and understanding. Create trust where there is pain. Make your church the united bride you want her to be. These divisions of mistrust run deep, O God. Without you, nothing will ever change. In our pain and our weariness, we express our hope that Jesus Christ can change our hearts and unite the church. We believe the gospel is greater than our divisions. And we long for the day when the world will take note of how we love each other. So, help us to meet each other in this prayerful journey. Hear us as we weep together, that we might walk together. In the name of Jesus, our King. Amen.

YBIC,

Clint

We will miss you, Tera!

Please join me as we bid farewell to a dear FinD family member. Effective June 30th, Tera Rush returns to a 100% focus on life as a busy mom and wife. Since joining us in March 2019, Tera's contributions have been vital. The rebranding from WSGN to FinD, our hugely successful first annual retreat, an enhanced website, and the new FinD swag are just a few of the projects Tera helped coordinate. We wish Tera nothing but the very best with her renewed family focus and continued journey in Jesus Christ. Thank you, Tera!
